Eligibility and Conflict of Interest Disclosure

In order to ensure that ARB members are impartial, the law puts a number of limits on who can serve as ARB members. Your answers to these questions will determine whether you are legally eligible to serve on the ARB. For the purposes of these questions:

“Local Government” is a government entity that levies property taxes, such as county, city, school district, etc.

“Appraisal District” refers to the Chambers County Appraisal District and to any other appraisal district in the State of Texas.

“Governing Body” is the group of officials that oversee a local government, such as a city council, county commissioner’s court, school board of trustees, or board of directors.

“Officer” means holding an elective or appointive office for a local government, such as governing body member, chief executive officer, judge, tax assessor, business manager, superintendent, etc.

“Part-time employee” includes a substitute teacher.

“Contract” means an agreement of any sort.

“Substantial interest” means combines ownership by you and your spouse of at least 10% of the voting stock or shares of a business entity, or that you or your spouse is a partner, limited partner, or officer of the business entity.
